Awards & Recognition

U.S. News & World Report Best Hospital

Stanford Hospital is on the Best Hospitals Honor Roll and is nationally recognized in 11 specialties.

The Stanford Stroke Center is designated as a Comprehensive Stroke Center, providing the most advanced and rapid stroke care for patients nationwide.

The Stanford Medicine Cancer Center is part of the Stanford Cancer Institute, the only NCI-Designated Comprehensive Cancer Center between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Stanford Health Care was first designated as a Magnet Hospital in 2007.

Magnet Recognition is a prestigious award developed by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to recognize health care organizations that provide nursing excellence. Only 9% of U.S. health care organizations achieve this honor.

Stanford Health Care earned a top score on the Healthcare Equality Index (HEI) from the Human Rights Campaign Foundation, a leading LGBTQ+ rights organization. The HEI is the national LGBTQ+ benchmarking tool that evaluates health care facilities' policies and practices related to the equity and inclusion of their LGBTQ+ patients, visitors, and employees.

Stanford Medicine is an integrated academic health system comprising the Stanford School of Medicine and pediatric and adult health care delivery systems. Together, we harness the full potential of biomedicine through collaborative research, education, and clinical care.

Data is based on FY 2023 health system statistics for Stanford Health Care only. It does not include Stanford Health Care Tri-Valley and Stanford Medicine Partners.
